Katrina enjoys working through and solving the puzzle of employee benefits with her clients. Over the course of her career, Katrina has advised both private and public sector clients on issues related to employee benefits, with a particular focus on retirement and health plan compliance; mergers and acquisitions; and the drafting, operation, and design of all types of health and welfare and retirement plans. Katrina also advises and counsels clients regarding fiduciary requirements, nonqualified deferred compensation plans, and non-profit and governmental plans. Katrina has represented clients before the Internal Revenue Service, the United States Department of Labor, the Pension Benefit Guaranty Corporation, and the California Public Employees' Retirement System. Katrina is the programs co-chair for the Orange County Chapter of the Western Pension and Benefits Council. In her free time, Katrina is an avid reader and singer. She is co-president of the board of directors and a singer in the Orange County Women's Chorus.
